Come 2016

By Cheryl Cannon

Thank you for asking with us as we gathered for our National Team Retreat. God's Presence was incredible as we witnessed His Mighty Power in our midst. One day, He addressed fear in our hearts, which we gratefully surrendered to Him. And the next, we waited in silence as waves of His Presence and Peace washed over us. He began preparing our hearts for this fall when we will gather as a family, to respond to His invitation to "Come and talk with Me" and to "Remember the LORD, Who is Great and Glorious". Marshall Foster, founder of the World History Institute, once said, "Remembering God always precedes revival." May it be so, Lord!

Stuart and Celia McAlpine, our International Directors, and Beverley Coad, our Continental Director, will be some of our special guests for Come 2016 in Kansas City, Missouri. We believe the Holy Spirit has led us to gather in our Nation's heartland because it is symbolic of His desire to “come” and lead us in asking with Jesus for the heart of our Nation to fully return to LORD.

Some of our primary scripture passages for this National Prayer Gathering are:

Psalms 27.8, "My heart has heard you say, 'Come and talk with Me.' And my heart responds 'LORD, I am coming.'"

Nehemiah 4.14, "Then as I looked over the situation, I called together the nobles and the rest of the people and said to them, 'Don't be afraid of the enemy! Remember the LORD, Who is Great and Glorious, and fight for your brothers, your sons, your daughters, your wives and your homes!'"

Our dates are, September 15-17. Please join us in making preparations to come. Visit our website for more information and to register: www.asknetworkusa.net.

From the Generations Team...

By Anne Doggett

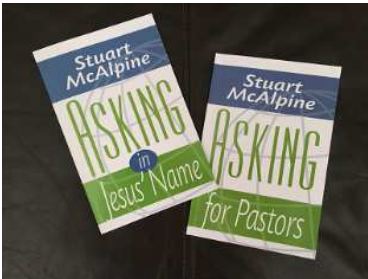

At a recent conference I attended one of the speakers referenced the technique of yoking two oxen together, matching a tried and true older ox with one younger and less experienced, so that the younger might learn efficiently and painlessly from the older one. Isn't this a poignant picture? What are we doing when we are that kind of "close" to each other? We are sharing stories and exploits, wisdom and insights, or perhaps providing support as one may be exploring ideas that are new, or challenging in some way.

And we are proclaiming about our God. Psalm 145:4 says: "One generation shall praise Your works to another, and shall declare Your mighty acts." Psalm 22:30 promises: "A posterity will serve Him; it will be recounted of the Lord to the next generation."

Praising God together encourages our spirit, builds up our trust, and equips us to receive more of Him at ever increasing depth. When we share our stories, it not only encourages the listener but also the speaker, causing us to connect better with one another and also with God. What better way to hear the prayers of His heart and then pray His will and purposes into our communities and the nations of the world?

Let us be on the lookout to find just that one with whom we might "yoke" ourselves. And may God bless us as we continue to call all generations to pray (and praise and declare and recount) for (and in) the nations.

Thank You

Thank you, Lisa Mills, for blessing the members of ASK Network with your gifts of hospitality. After serving on the Practical team for several years, Lisa has asked to step down to better serve the increasing needs of her family and local church. We bless Lisa as she answers God's calling in this next season of her life.
